

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has been the best thing to happen in recent years. I am no longer bothered by unwanted telephone sollicitaions. Anyone I currently have a business relationship with I contact when I wish to speak with them, not when they want to sell me something. It has truly been wonderful and I would not like anything to interfere with my right not to be bothered with unsolicited contact. Thank you. Yvonne Seach